Capital University’s Conservatory of Music invites applications for a full-time, tenure track faculty member as Director of Wind Ensembles beginning August 2015 at the rank of Assistant Professor. Whereas this position is highly visible both on campus and throughout the region, the successful candidate will have significant experience and a documented record of success as a conductor and teacher at the collegiate and/or high school level. Success with student recruitment and retention is expected.

The successful candidate should be prepared to lead the Symphonic Winds and Wind Symphony, coordinate the annual Honor Band Reading Clinic, teach undergraduate and graduate courses in Instrumental conducting, instrumental pedagogy, chamber music, and maintain a visible recruiting profile. Additional responsibilities may include, but are not limited to courses identified as departmental needs or other areas within the candidate’s area of expertise.

Qualifications:
- Terminal degree (DMA, DM) required.
- Demonstrated pedagogical success in educational settings, including understanding of methods and practices of effective ensemble training and the ability to work within a highly collaborative learning environment is expected.

Capital University offers a rich benefits package that includes medical, dental, retirement, family education benefits, long-term disability, life insurance and free parking.

Application Process: Interested candidates should send 1) cover letter that addresses the qualifications and responsibilities for the position, 2) curriculum vitae, 3) statement of teaching philosophy, 4) name, title, email address and phone for a minimum three references, 5) unofficial graduate transcripts.

Review of applications will begin February 15, 2015 and continue until the position is filled.
