JOB OPPORTUNITIES

Instructor, Voice
Conservatory of Music

Posted February 12, 2015

Capital University invites applications for a term faculty position in Voice at the rank of Instructor; Soprano or Tenor preferred, other voice types considered. Capital University's Conservatory of Music seeks to maintain its tradition of excellence in performance and teaching. Salary will be commensurate with experience. Teaching duties begin Fall Semester 2015.

Qualifications: The successful candidate will have significant performing experience in opera, oratorio, and art song. Additional experience in Music Theater is desirable. Ideal candidates will have at least 3 years of college teaching experience. MM required, DM or DMA preferred.

Responsibilities: In addition to studio voice, other teaching responsibilities may include courses within the candidate’s area of expertise; such as Diction, Vocal Pedagogy, Vocal Repertoire, Opera Workshop, or directing a Choral Ensemble. The ability to teach, recruit and retain undergraduate students while remaining active as a performing artist is expected.

Capital University offers a rich benefits package that includes medical, dental, retirement, family education benefits, long-term disability, life insurance and free parking.

Application Process: Interested candidates should send 1) a cover letter of interest that addresses the qualifications and responsibilities for the position, 2) curriculum vitae, 3) a vision statement on “Teaching Undergraduate Voice in the 21st Century”, 4) the name, title, email address and phone for a minimum three references, 5) unofficial graduate transcript(s).

Review of applications will begin March 9th and continue until the position is filled.
